Information about Filing Your Documents & Next Steps

1. DV-127: Fill out Confidential Law Enforcement Information Sheet, form DV-127 (available at ak-courts.info/dv127).
2. Using TrueFiling: Create a TrueFiling account and log in. Upload this petition and Confidential Law Enforcement Information Sheet, form DV-127. You need to upload them separately – not as one bundle. See instructions at ak-courts.info/tfhowto. Note: The email you use for TrueFiling can be seen by any other TrueFiling user. If you don't want to use your regular email address, you can get a new one just for your court filings. There are many companies where you can sign up for a free email address.
Not Using TrueFiling: Make a copy of this petition and Confidential Law Enforcement Information Sheet, DV-127 for your own records. Bring the originals to the court in person or mail them (court directory: ak-courts.info/dir).
3. Hearings: Some courts hold hearings on ex parte (20-day) petitions, but others do not. If there is not a hearing, the judge will decide whether or not to grant the order based only on what you wrote in the petition. The clerk will tell you the judge's decision. If there is a hearing, the court will send you information about it and whether you will be in person or on the phone. The judge will tell you the decision at the hearing. If the hearing is over the phone, make sure that you keep your phone charged and with you so that you do not miss the judge's call. If you miss the call, your petition could be denied.
